FACULTY

GREG D. LUBOW, Esq. has been a sole practitioner in Tannersville, New York since 1977. For 27 years, until 2004, he also served as the Chief Public Defender for Greene County, NY. In that capacity, he was criticized for providing 'Cadillac defenses' for indigent state inmates. He is an experienced trial attorney, having tried numerous felonies, including homicide and vehicular manslaughter, to verdict. He has 33 years of experience interviewing and representing persons accused of DWI. He is a Director of NYSACDL providing a voice for the small-town sole practitioner for more than 14 years. He is a graduate of SUNY Buffalo (1973), Brooklyn Law School (1976) and Hunter College Graduate School of Urban Planning (1977).

MICHAEL MOHUN, ESQ., is a sole practitioner whose practice is limited to criminal defense and representation of judges before the Commission on Judicial Conduct. For eight years, he served as Bennington Town Justice. Mr. Mohun was appointed to serve the towns of Perry and Warsaw as acting Justice. He instructs Town and Village Justices through the Office of Court Administration's continuing legal education program. Currently, he is the Chairman of the Eighth Judicial District Attorney Grievance Committee. He serves on the Executive Committee of the Criminal Law Section and on the Special Committee for Judicial Discipline of the New York State Bar Association. Mr. Mohun is a Director of NYSACDL.

GLENN EDWARD MURRAY, Esq. is a former JAG attorney in the 82d Airborne Division; for over 25 years a criminal defense attorney in Buffalo, New York; from 1993-1994, an Adjunct Professor of American Constitutional Law at Canisius College, Buffalo, N.Y. (Evening Division); from 1992 to 2002, he served as Village Prosecutor - Village of Williamsville, NY. In addition to authoring 3 books and publishing numerous articles on criminal law, Mr. Murray publishes Murray's WNYDWI Newsletter. A frequent lecturer on DWI and criminal law for various bar associations and the Office of Court Administration, he is a member of the National College for DUI Defense, and is a Director of the New York State Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and a member of its CLE Committee.

DONALD G. REHKOPF, JR., Esq. is associated with Brenna, Brenna & Boyce, PLLC in Rochester, NY where he concentrates on criminal defense and military law. From 1981-85, Mr. Rehkopf was in private practice in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, where his practice was limited to defending U.S. military personnel before courts-martial and administrative proceedings. From 1985-96, he was a staff attorney in the Violent Felony Offender section of the Monroe County Public Defenders Office in Rochester concentrating in complex forensic science and medical issues affecting those accused of serious crimes. Mr. Rehkopf is a frequent lecturer on military justice, criminal law, criminal trial techniques, and professional ethics. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, and in New York State. He has tried over 225 cases to a verdict and argued countless appeals. He is Co-Chair of the Military Law Committee of the NACDL and a former Vice-President and current Director of NYSACDL. He was an amicus curiae party as one of the "Experts of the Law of War" at the Supreme Court in Hamdi v. Rumsfeld, 124 S.Ct. 2633 (2004), while simultaneously representing another amicus curiae, People to Enforce the Geneva Conventions, in that case.
