

JEANNE E. METTLER

Jeanne E. Mettler has practiced criminal law for over thirty years. She began her career in 1978 with the Criminal Division of the Legal Aid Society of Westchester County. She worked in both the private and public sector in Westchester. Her extensive trial experience includes homicide cases including one of the first potential death penalty cases in Westchester, in 1998. In 1996 Ms. Mettler was the President of the New York State Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. She was the first woman and first public defender to hold that post. In 2010 Ms. Mettler opened an office in Columbia County, in the town of Copake. She is concentrating on criminal defense. She also serves as Chair of the Comprehensive Plan Committee for the Town of Copake. Ms. Mettler is a 1977 graduate of the Rutgers School of Law- Camden and holds a BA from Marymount College in Tarrytown. She is a native of Copake Falls, New York.
<http://www.jeanneemettlerattorney.com>