

ANDREW KOSSOVER

Andrew Kossover is a partner in Kossover Law Offices and is Ulster County's part-time Chief Public Defender. Mr. Kossover attended SUNY Buffalo and graduated from Vermont Law School in 1977. He immediately began the practice of law under the auspices of the Criminal Defense Division of the Legal Aid Society of New York. Mr. Kossover is also the former law clerk for then Ulster County Family Court Judge Karen K. Peters.

In 1984, Mr. Kossover relocated from New York City to the Hudson River Valley. Mr. Kossover is also a member of the adjunct faculty at the State University of New York at New Paltz where he teaches such courses as Criminal Law, and Introduction to Law. Mr. Kossover is also a member of the Committee on Character and Fitness for the Third Judicial District.

Mr. Kossover also currently serves as President of the Ulster County Bar Association. Mr. Kossover serves on the Boards of both the New York State Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and the New York State Defenders Association. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association's Committee to Ensure Quality in Mandated Representation. Mr. Kossover is an Advisory Group Member of the New York State Justice Task Force on Wrongful Convictions.