

AARON MYSLIWIEC

Aaron Mysliwec has been a criminal defense lawyer for more than a decade. He has defended everyone from a Fortune 500 company to a senior citizen who could not afford to pay a lawyer. He strongly believes that no matter who you are or what you've been accused of doing, you deserve to have someone in your corner. Mr. Mysliwec's practice includes defending clients against "white collar" criminal charges and against criminal charges such as murder, rape and narcotics distribution. This representation involves defending clients in both state and federal courts in New York and in other state and federal courts around the country. Mr. Mysliwec graduated from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1997 and from Carleton College in 1993. He is admitted to the bar in New York and Minnesota. He is also admitted to practice in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the District of Minnesota, the Northern District of Texas, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Mr. Mysliwec is also a graduate of the National Criminal Defense College's trial skills program. In addition to Mr. Mysliwec's experience, he is a Board Member and Treasurer for the New York State Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He has lectured and trained other lawyers on topics such as jury selection, cross-examination, closing argument, and the illegal imposition of post-release supervision on New York State prisoners and he has contributed materials to a National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyer training on litigating an "eye-witness" identification case. Finally, Mr. Mysliwec has appeared on Court TV's The Best Defense.
